 - Position title (e.g., school librarian, adjunct professor, English teacher, etc.)
 - Organization/School
 - City, State

- Presenter Waiver: All presenters must register for the AASL conference with either a one-day or a full conference registration. Waivers are available for presenters/co-presenters that are not in the school library field. Waiver requests will be considered once your proposal is accepted. If you are not accepted for a waiver, you will be notified. If you have questions about whether or not you qualify for a waiver, please contact AASL (aaalnational@ala.org) before submitting a proposal.
 - A waiver allows a presenter the opportunity only to enter the conference to present their program. You are not allowed to attend other sessions or programming without a badge. Exhibits only badges are available on-site for an additional fee.

- Presenter Affiliations: If your presentation is affiliated with a publisher or a vendor, you are required to disclose this information. If you are being paid, or your conference attendance is being reimbursed by a vendor for your presentation, you are affiliated with that vendor. This will not affect your acceptance. However, presentations should not be used to sell a product, but to share how a product has impacted your work.

- Presenter Consent: AASL records and makes available some of its conference sessions on AASL Learning Library (ALL). ALL is a repository of webcasts, podcasts, and other digital resources from AASL, including the latest issue of Knowledge Quest and past presentations from the AASL National Conferences. By providing consent, you allow AASL the opportunity to record your session. Please note that AASL can modify the recording to block slides, names, and images that the presenter does not feel comfortable sharing. However, AASL respects the presenters choice to not make their presentation available for recording.
